SPANISH SCHOOL “SAN JOSE”
SAN JOSE TOURS – QUETZALTENANGO

Santiago Atitlán-Sololá

Lake Atitlan is one of the attractions most visited in Guatemala, Surrounded by three volcanoes, Atitlan, Toliman and San Pedro, the location offers breathtaking scenery, making it a natural jewel that relaxes thousands of travelers who decide to stay and live in the villages around the lake.

Cost: $150 per person

Antigua Guatemala

It is a city known worldwide as being one of the best preserved cities from the colonial period. There are examples of Spanish Renaissance architecture with baroque facades, There are also a number of colonial ruins: churches and monasteries.

Cost: $200 per person

Chichicastenango-Quiche

It is famous for its market which draws a large number of tourists. Chichicastenango is also famous because it is the place where the defining document of Mayan life was found the 'Popul Vuh". This document outlines the religious thought and history of the Mayans. The book originally written in the local language "Quiche" was translated into Castillan by Fray Francisco Ximenez.

Cost: $150 per person

Ruinas Zaculeo-Huehuetenango

It was the capital of the kingdom Mam which flourished in the Classic period. It is located in western Guatemala a few minutes from the capital of the Department of  Huehuetenango and close to the border with Mexico.

Cost: $150 per person

Visita a Iglesias antiguas

Within a short distance of the Spanish school at the priory are a number of churches dating from colonial times. They are interesting from the perspective that they are atill active religious communities and they demonstrate the architectural style of the Spanish missionaries.

Cost: $100 per person

Playa de Champerico

The city of Quetzaltenango is 45 minutes away from the Pacific Ocean. For a relaxing outing a day at the beach might be in order!

Cost: $200 per person