SAN JOSÉ SPANISH SCHOOL

Quetzaltenango, Guatemala

A fully accredited school for teaching the Spanish language; administered by the Benedictine monks of Priorato San José.

ABOUT US

The San José Spanish School is a fully accredited school for teaching the Spanish language. It is especially oriented toward providing an education in the Spanish language for both men and women who work or will work in Hispanic ministry. It is open to major seminarians, priests, deacons, lay ministers, religious ministers, and sisters who are 21 years of age or older.

The school, using existing buildings, is located on the grounds of the priory in Quetzaltenango, Guatemala.

Engage in full Spanish immersion supported by dedicated, one-on-one instruction.

OBJECTIVES

1. Qualified instructors provide an intensive immersion in the Spanish language for students at all levels of proficiency with an emphasis on preparation for working in the Hispanic ministry within the Catholic Church or other Christian churches.

2. Cultural awareness of the Hispanic culture of Guatemala.

3. A Catholic setting and orientation, including the opportunity to participate in daily Eucharist and the Divine Office in Spanish.
